Dear Students:

I balked at the idea of writing this message. What have I got to say and will anyone read this message if I do find something? Like Moses, I wanted to pass the buck. Since Aaron, however, isn't available, I'll give you a little glimpse into my heart.

It's been an exciting year for me — grappling to define in practical terms the purpose of this school — debating how to achieve it — seeking God's way in difficult decisions.

It's been exciting to see and hear of you in action — getting beat in volleyball by the 'softies' of the Homemakers Club — maiming your teacher in basketball — producing well at examination time — hosting the Missionary Conference so graciously — mixing with the people you meet on deputation trips — sharing your faith with others — enthusiastically participating in the life of the school — beginning a newspaper. I get the impression that you are having a meaningful year. I thank God for your initiative, responsiveness and growth, for your dedicated staff working almost around the clock to meet the challenges you throw at them and to throw some at you as well. I challenge you, also, to live a full and abundant life as you leave the WBI this spring, living your faith and sharing it in the power of Jesus Christ.

Principal's Message

A writer has succinctly stated: "Education begins with discipline and ends in self-discipline." The inference is that knowledge must be interpreted and applied in terms of life and that in the application of these truths influence human behaviour, mold personality and give direction of life.

The precept is applicable to Christian education and the training which you have received. The acquisition and acceptance of biblical knowledge alone is not enough; it must be applied to all areas of the Christian life. By this process, the whole personality, conduct and outlook on life will be affected. Self-discipline and obedience to the leading of the Holy Spirit are the prime prerequisites of the scripturally-oriented life. Motivated by love to God and fellowman, the fruition of the consecrated life will, undoubtedly bring forth the spiritual graces, Phil. 1:10, 11.

For all of us this has been a memorable year. The new Men's Residence became a reality. The Missionary Conference and Youth Retreat have left indelible impressions. The Ontario Deputation and Camp Arnes Retreat plus the many other activities have been experiences which will long remain in our memories.

The Yearbook Committee has endeavoured to conserve some of these pleasant memories for us. For their splendid efforts, we heartily commend them.

Youth stands at the cross-roads of life. Basically, the Bible recognizes only two ways — “Behold I set before you the way of life and the way of death.” Jeremiah 21:8b We have chosen the way of life — let this be a settled matter and let us continue on in this way.

“But,” we sometimes complain, “this way of life offers so many opportunities, I don’t know what to do!” First of all, thank God when you do have many opportunities. To grumble about opportunities as though they were liabilities is sin. Much rather we want to pray one for another, “that the Lord . . . God may shew us the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we should do.” Jeremiah 42:3.

Introduction to Music

Although it has the purpose of reaching man with a message from God, church music in itself can not make him a Christian, nor can it cause him to worship. However, when music is utilized by the Holy Spirit, it becomes a vehicle of the truth of salvation, which, when responded to by man, will result in making him a Christian. Likewise, music is able to induce man's worship to God.

It is senseless to ask how far my action reaches, and where God's grace begins; there is no common borderline; what concerns me alone, before I bring something about, is my action, and what concerns me alone, when the action is successfully done, is God's grace. The one is no less real than the other, and neither is a part cause. God and man do not divide the government of the world between them; man's action is enclosed in God's action, but it is still real action. (Buber)

Therefore my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for God is at work in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. Phil. 2:12, 13

All of us as students look back upon an exciting year. When we consider all the enriching spiritual, academic, and social experiences, I think I speak for all of us in saying it is a tremendous year.

As a third class we enjoyed working together with each other, with the faculty and with second class students. We especially commend the second class students who have shown their spiritual maturity and we know you will make good leaders next year.

Although we don't have our whole life mapped

Class President's Message

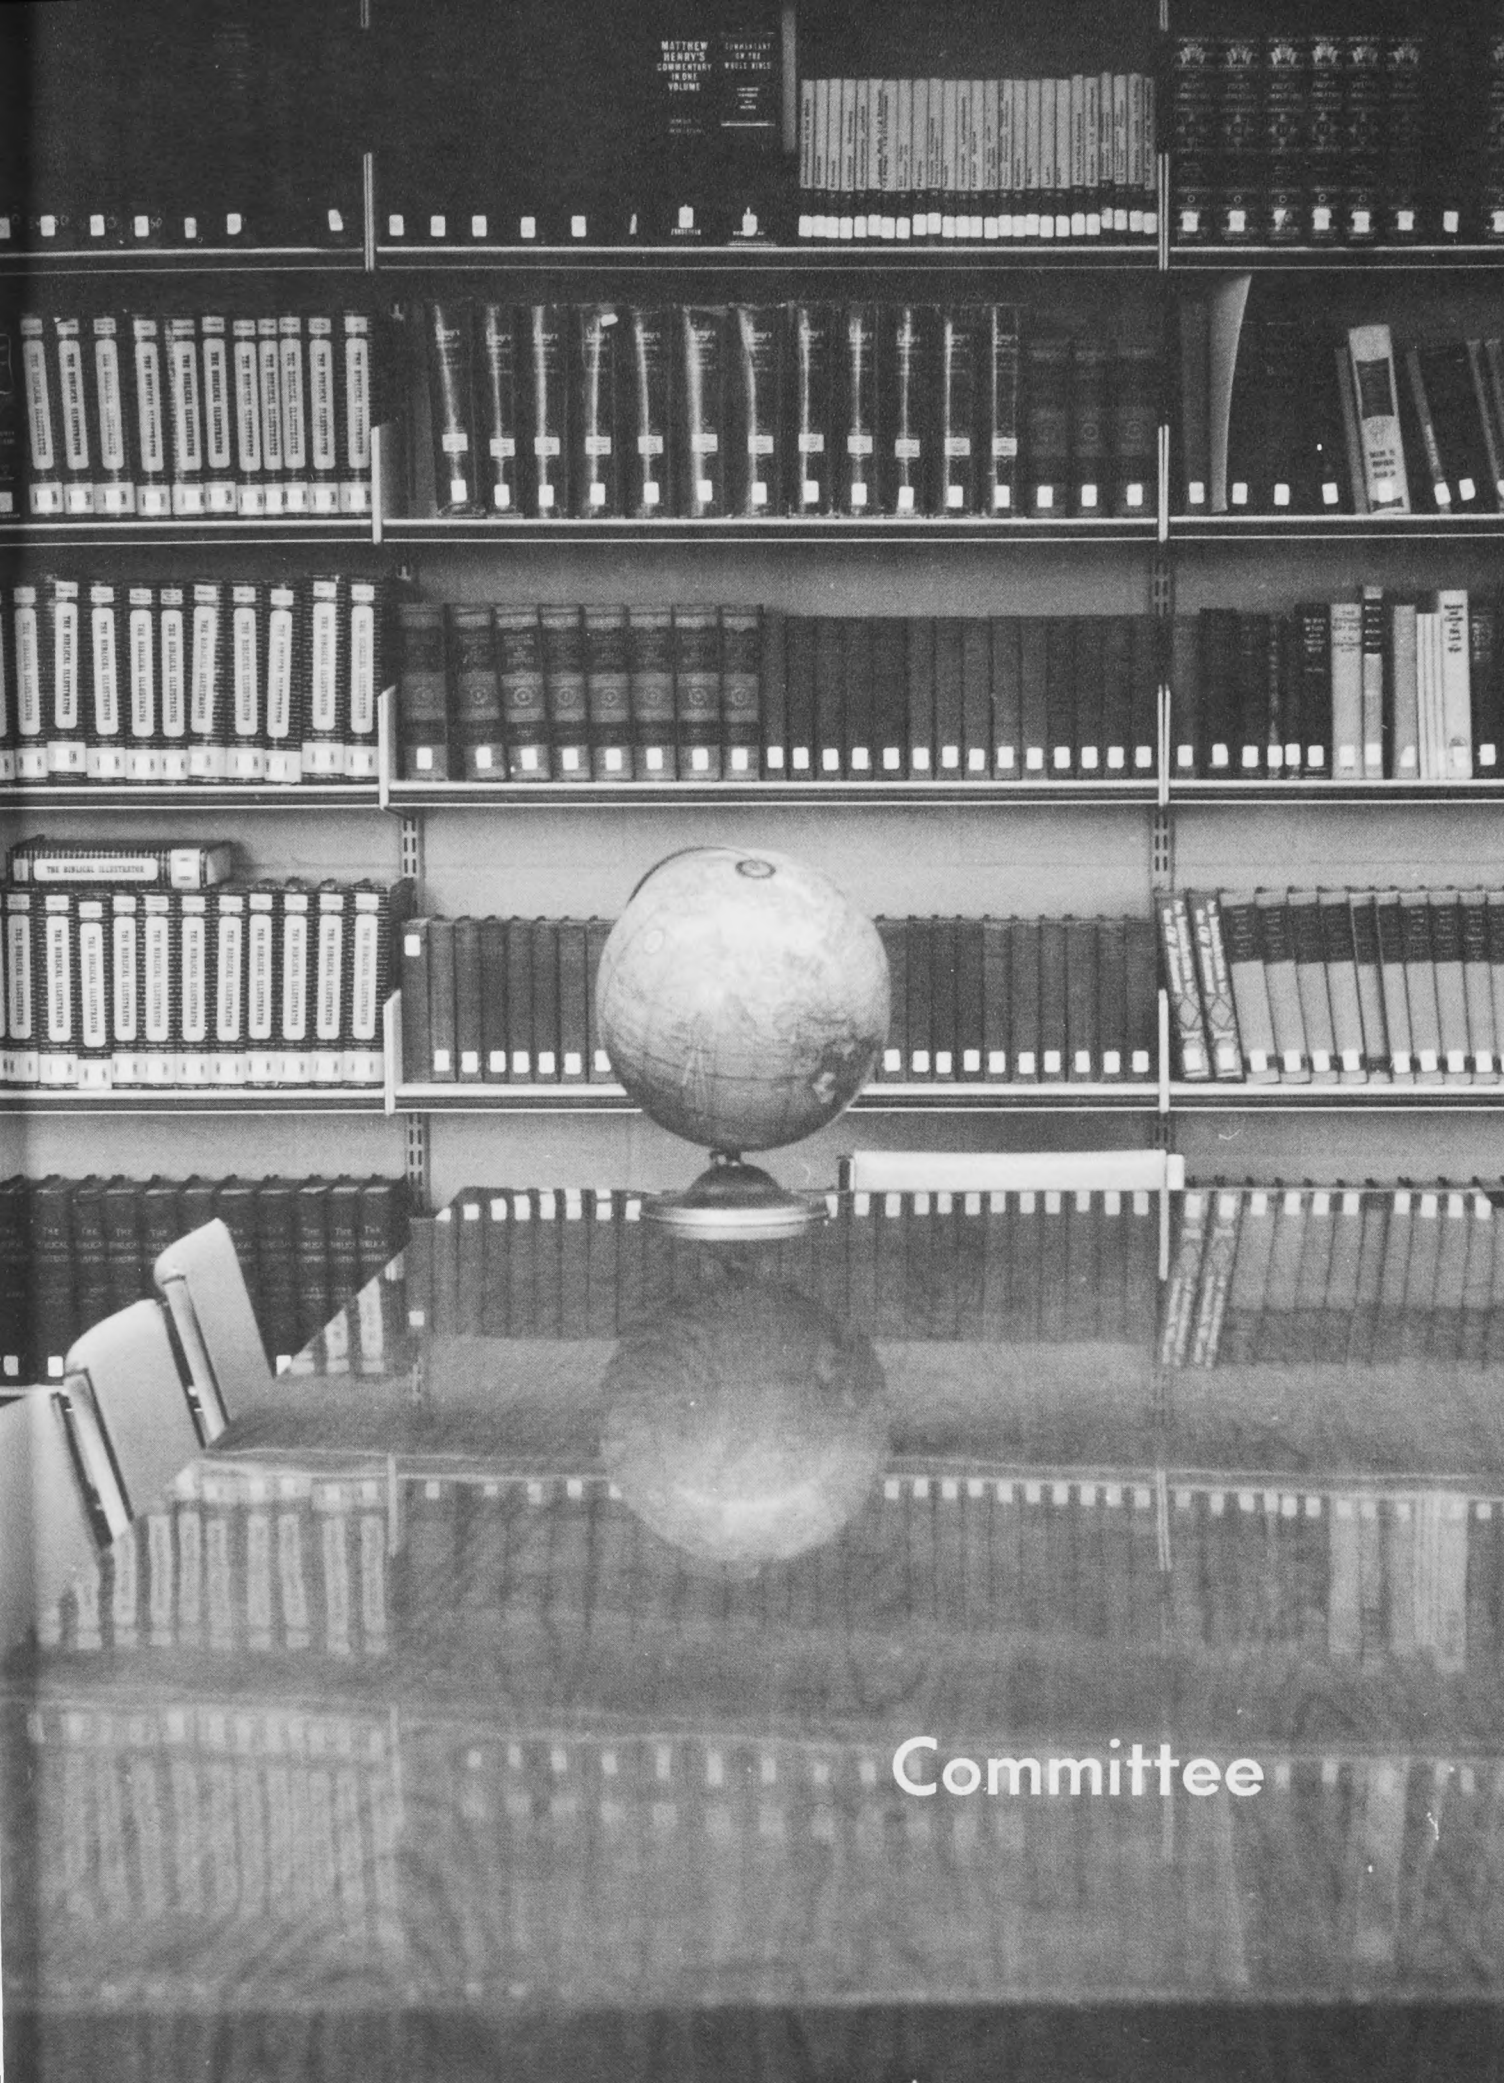

On behalf of our second class students I would like to commend the third class students of their job of making us feel so much at home on the campus. I am sure I can speak for everyone of the students in saying that this year has been a pleasant experience for us working both with the older students and the faculty.

For those of us who are returning next year I hope we will make the new students feel at home as we felt.

A word of encouragement for both the second class and the graduating class. Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord, which he will show you today. Exodus 14:13.

Most students came to the Bible Institute to study. However, our training would not be complete if it were not possible for us to apply our knowledge. Sure they act as “feelers” in the nervous system of the school, thus aiding the council in providing opportunities for the application of knowledge.

The council has attempted to maintain a close relationship between the staff and students, provide for social welfare, and private spiritual growth.

We as council thank the students for their co-operation in upholding the principles and spirit of W.B.I. We also thank God for guidance and for definite answers to prayer which we have experienced. May God continue to use the Winkler Bible Institute for the promotion of His Kingdom.

The Christian Service Committee this year has tried to get more out of its sheltered environment and get into the world to witness. This has been accomplished somewhat by tract distribution. Groups have also gone to the hospital, both Heritage Manor and the Salem Home for the Aged quite regularly. The Good News Clubs have been enjoyed to quite an extent by those teaching and children have been brought to the Lord. Sometimes groups have been asked to sing at various occasions in Sunday Services and Young People's meetings.

One problem I've felt with myself and believe others is 'what is our motive'. Is this just something to ease our conscience or is it really a service for Christ? It is my prayer that our motives were always Christ-centered and not self-centered.

Ron Braun

The Literary Committee has had the privilege of starting the Bible School's first intramural newspaper, "School Daze". Teachers and students were given the opportunity to express their views on a variety of topics. We believe the paper has helped students develop literary creativity and has discovered talent which has been lying dormant in many of the students.

We have also had the opportunity of presenting a major drama in March. The drama we chose was "The Carpenter". The aim of the drama was to give students an opportunity to develop their dramatic ability and to bring honor and glory to His name.

We, as a committee, would like to take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks to the students and teachers who contributed so much of their time and energy in the work of the newspaper and drama. A very special "thank you" to Mr. Goossen, our advisor, for his many helpful suggestions.

"Music washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life." Our school could hardly exist without the continual ring of music in its halls. Many times our most personal feelings can be expressed most ably through some form of music.

As Music Committee, our duties have been to organize chapel music, take care of music files, and we also planned a student recital. During the year two new pianos were acquired for the school and the final payment for the organ was made. The Oratorio choir performed Vivaldi's "Gloria" and excerpts from the "Messiah" before Christmas and Haydn's "Te Deum" in spring. Many students also availed themselves of taking organ, voice, and piano lessons. The Chorister's tour to Ontario was also a highlight. They also prepared a Christmas Carol Programme, and visited some churches in Manitoba.

The music in our school is of utmost importance, because for many students it is the first opportunity to develop their musical abilities. It is a wonderful avenue of rendering praise and adoration to our Creator.

Recreation played an important part in our Bible School program.

We started the year off with an amateur hour in which almost everyone participated. We endeavoured to have a social every weekend. These socials consisted of bowling, tobogganing, films, a Halloween party, and a skating party, etc.

Our sports activity consisted of intramural volleyball and basketball. The school was divided into four houses. These houses played against one another every Tuesday and Thursday night at the Elementary School Gym. Other sports consisted of football, curling, hockey, skating, ping pong and shuffleboard.

Several volleyball and basketball games were played against the local Collegiate, M.B.B.C. and M.B.C.I.

The hockey games played against various churches and schools were enjoyed by all. We trust that these activities have proven beneficial.

The experiences of the year have been varied — enjoyable, enlightening, some frustrating — all essential in giving us a balanced education and preparing us for a life which will place a wide range of demands on each of us. We have endeavoured to depict some of these experiences, to serve as a remembrance for those who were here, an incentive to consider Christian education for those who have not attended, and to give members of our conference an insight into the school life.

My sincere word of thanks to the co-operating churches, the photographer, Mr. Sawatzky, the advertising patrons, our staff advisor, Mr. Wiebe, and to those who gave cheerfully of their time in the production of this book.

Activities

The Choristers

The program for the Choristers (seen above) during this past year was exciting as well as stimulating to their spiritual lives. Their first performance was a Carol Service at Christmas in the Winkler M.B. Church.

The highlight of the year was the Choir Tour to Ontario Churches which the Choristers made on February 8-17.

Deputation was also made by the Choristers in Manitoba beginning the end of February and continuing every Sunday through to April.

It is the purpose of the Choristers that their singing will have glorified God and furthered the cause of Christian Education in the area of music.

Singing is an important phase of school life. The general choir seen above performed at various school functions. Various smaller singing groups sang in Chapel and enjoyed serving at the Hospital, Heritage Manor, and Salem Home for the Aged.

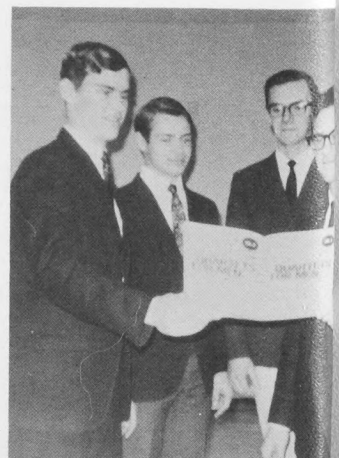

A number of our students played musical instruments, including the cordovox (right) violin, trumpet and clarinet.

"With good will doing service, as to the Lord. . ."

The school thrives on prayer. On the right is one of the 8 prayer groups who met weekly to pray for specific mission fields. Apart from personal devotions, the dorm prayer meetings and partner devotion each once a week were vital in shaping the lives of the students who attended.

Guests to our morning chapel (bottom) introduced us to new fields of service and broadened our horizons by talks and films. Each Friday we enjoyed student chapel. These took the form of panels, informal testimonies or students preaching. (left)

Special Events

A Work-Day and Car Wash in October helped us raise enough money to pay the final debt on our Baldwin organ.

The Christmas banquet on December 16th was really enjoyed by the students, faculty and Board. Mr. James Nikkel gave a short challenging talk entitled "For unto us — what?"

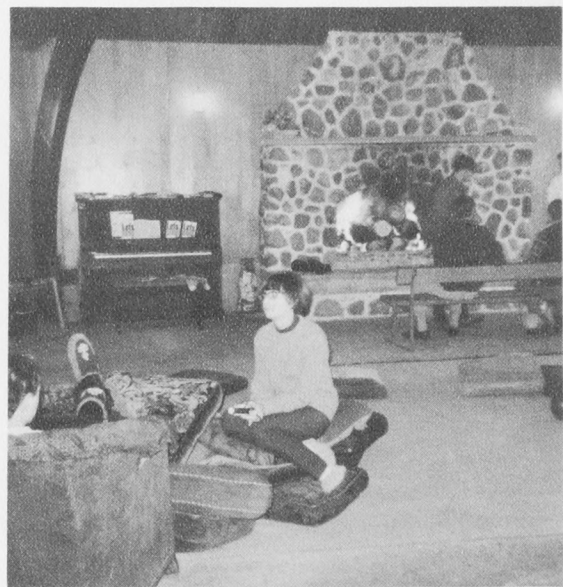

The Student Missionary Weekend Retreat from Jan. 27-29, a new venture for the school challenged us to rethink our concept of a "missionary" in broader terms and presented to us realistically the present problems in foreign mission. Some of the guests were Dr. Roy Just, Mr. Dwight Wiebe and Rev. A. J. Neufeld.

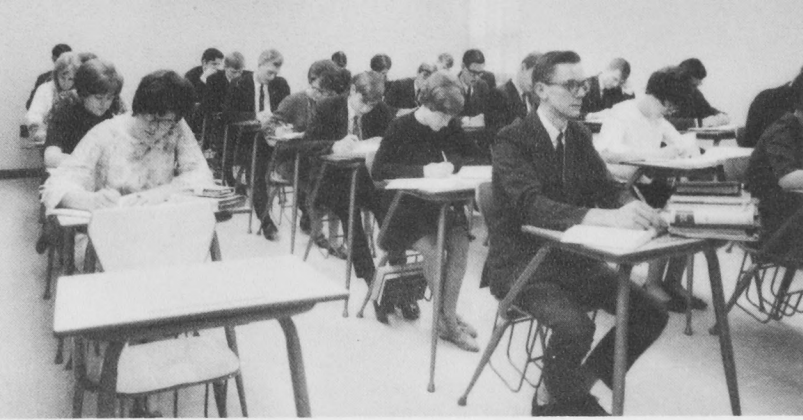

On February 7 to 9 the Choristers with Mr. Wiens, Mr. Goossen, and Mr. Wiebe made a tour of the Ontario churches — Virgil, the St. Catharines M.B. Churches, Vineland, Kitchener, Port Rowan, Leamington and 3 private schools. The experience, though physically exhausting, was tremendously mentally and spiritually stimulating.

The same week, the students not involved in the tour, spent a very enjoyable week at Camp Arnes. The activities included Ski-dooing, tobogganing, skiing, ice-fishing and hiking and the participation of Wig-Wam activities. Guest speakers gave talks on the various aspects of camping.

On March 15th and 16th the school put on the drama, The Carpenter, under the direction of Ted Goossen. Cast members were Waldo Pauls (leading role), Evelyn Heide, Ron Braun, Hildi Sawatsky, Herb Hoepfner, Esther Nikkel, Mary Rempel, Helen Martens, Rick Toews, John Enns, and Vic Peters.

Each day consisted of six classes — three in the morning and three in the afternoon. The classes took the form of lectures, discussions and seminars. Classes began at 8:45 A.M. and continued to 3:55 P.M.

The morning chapel service was a time of quietness where the students experienced meditation and spiritual guidance.

Food, the physical necessity anywhere, was tremendous. Students were expected to get up for breakfast at 7:30 — dinner and supper were, of course, never missed. The cooks were excellent and meals were unlimited and delicious.

After school activities include sports such as hockey practice, curling and basketball. The library is open for study until 10:00 and here are found innumerable research and reference books. Voice, piano and organ lessons are also conducted after school-hours. The school is equipped with several good pianos and church-model Baldwin organ.

A tip of the Hydro Helmet to the Graduating Class!

Congratulations to you on your graduation and best wishes for the future.

A future, we hope that will bring you the opportunity and rewards of a good education. For the rewards of education come in many forms — success, a richer, fuller life and a greater understanding of our world and its people.
